ASE participates in panel discussion at Al-Bayt University

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE), represented by its CEO Mazen Wathaifi, participated as a speaker in a panel discussion organized by the Faculty of Business at Al-Bayt University entitled “The Role of Initial Public Offerings in Stimulating the Financial Market and Their Impact on Economic Growth and Employment Opportunities.” The session was attended by His Excellency Dr. Youssef Mansour, former Minister of State for Economic Affairs, Ms. Nour Jarrar, CEO of Citi Jordan, and Mr. Zaid Nassif, CEO of United Financial Investments, on Wednesday, November 19, 2025, in the presence of the Vice President for Financial Affairs and Investment, Prof. Dr. Marie Bani Khalid, representing the President of the University, as well as a number of faculty members, university students, and representatives from the local community.

.

At the end of the meeting, the participants answered questions and inquiries from faculty members and students, and the representative of the university president honored the participants with university’s honorary shields.

