Trading Session Hours to Remain Unchanged During the National Team's World Cup Matches

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) announces that trading session hours will remain unchanged during the days on which the national team’s matches are held as part of the FIFA World Cup competition.

The ASE extends its best wishes to our national team success and good luck in its tournament campaign and hopes it achieves honorable results that reflect the aspirations of Jordanian fans.