The Amman Stock Exchange holds an "educational lecture" at the German Jordanian University

The Amman Stock Exchange, in cooperation with the Management Sciences Department at the School of Business of the German-Jordanian University, held an educational lecture entitled "Amman Stock Exchange: Latest Developments and Achievements" in the presence of the Vice President, Prof. Malek Alsharairi , Dean of the College, Prof. Muhannad Atmeh, head of Management Sciences Department, and a number of faculty members and university students on Tuesday 23/5/2023. Holding such lectures comes within the framework of the ASE's policy, its social responsibility, its keenness to deepen its relationship with universities, and its endeavor to enhance knowledge and culture in everything related to the national capital market and investment in securities.

Mr. Mazen Al Wathaifi, the CEO of the ASE, reviewed during the lecture the importance of the ASE in the economy, the nature of its work and the technical and legislative frameworks governing its work, as well as the ASE’s most important developments, achievements and its future plans. Al Wathaifi explained that the ASE has developed a strategic plan that includes many initiatives and projects with the aim of developing legislative and technical frameworks in accordance with the latest international standards and practices in order to enhance the ASE’ investment climate and increase its attractiveness for domestic and foreign investments, enhancing the presence of the ASE at the regional and international levels as well as developing investment awareness of financial securities, developing work on the ASE and achieving institutional excellence..

.queries and questions 'students the answered Wathaifi ,meeting the of end the At

