The Amman Stock Exchange Received a Delegation from Philadelphia University

Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received students from Philadelphia University/Finance and Banking Sciences in a field visit to the ASE and the Jordan Capital Market Institutions due to " Financial Markets" course, where Communication and Media Department presented a Power Point on the ASE also the recent technical, legislative developments that the Jordan Capital Market witnessed, this visit aimed at linking the theoretical side with the practical one.