

ASE Receives A delegation from The Jordanian Judicial Institute

Over two days, the Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) hosted students from the Jordanian Judicial Institute as part of a field visit to the Jordanian capital market institutions (Jordan Securities Commission, Amman Stock Exchange, and Securities Depository Center), with the aim of learning about the trading mechanism in the Amman Stock Exchange, and gain insight on the nature of the work of capital market institutions and the services they provide, in addition to the legislation regulating their work, which contributes to enhancing knowledge of the importance of the role that market institutions play in the national economy.

Dr. Malak Al-Jazazi, Head of Communication and Public Relations at the ASE, gave a presentation about the nature of the ASE's work, in addition to the most important recent developments in the market and future projects, as well as reviewing the trading mechanism and the most important features of the electronic trading system in place at the ASE.

This visit comes as part of the efforts of capital market institutions to enhance cooperation with institutes and educational institutions, in order to consolidate awareness and knowledge of everything related to the stock market and the mechanisms of its institutions.
