Article (16)

A. An attendance list of all General Assembly members present at the meeting shall be drafted and signed by each representative.

B. The President of the General Assembly shall appoint a minute-writer to place on record the number of attendees, the minutes of the meeting and the decisions taken in it, and shall designate two persons to count and divide votes.

C. For the purposes of electing members of the Board of Directors, the General Assembly shall elect a committee one of its members as a Chairman and two other non-nominated members to supervise the polling procedure and announce the results.