Article (31)

The member shall set out in writing internal work procedures designed to control all operations that go through it. Such procedures must be compatible with applicable legislations and shall ensure the following:

A. Persons associated with the member act in accordance with the powers entrusted to each of them.
B. Operations executed for the sake of Persons associated with the member and their relatives are transacted with the knowledge of the member.