Article (38)

Notwithstanding the imposition of disciplinary action in accordance with the provisions of this By-laws, the Chief Executive Officer or the Board of Directors may request the person who committed the breach to revoke the breach and rectify the resulting situation, to cease from committing such breach, or to cease any preparatory steps for such breach within a given period of time.