The Amman Stock Exchange Receives A Delegation from Al-Balqa Applied University

The Amman Stock Exchange (ASE) received a delegation from Faculty of Business at Al-Balqa Applied University as part of a scientific field visit to the Jordanian capital market institutions (Jordan Securities Commission, Amman stock exchange and Securities Depository Center), with the aim of reviewing the work of these institutions and identify the latest legislative and regulatory developments.

Dr. Malak Al-Jazazi, Chief of Communication and Public Relations Division at the ASE, presented the nature of the exchange's work, in addition to the most important recent developments witnessed by the market and future projects. This visit comes as a continuation of the ASE's approach to enhancing the investment culture, and continuous communication with the local community and spreading financial awareness. among citizens and investors. This visit comes as a continuation of the exchange's approach to strengthen its partnership with universities and enhance awareness, knowledge and culture in everything related to the national capital market and link the theoretical aspect with the practical aspect.

At the end of the meeting, the discussion was opened and the students ' questions and inquiries were answered about everything related to the Jordanian capital market institutions in general and the ASE in particular.